Wish to thank everyone who has sent me info on my Wright family on my Fathers line. They did intermarry with many Wrights, Mulnix and other families. Many of them were Ministers. Many in NC, VA, KY, IN, IL, IA, MO and few others.

I started doing genealogy in 1969 and all my grand parents were gone but had other members of their's could get info from. Otherwise I worked at the court house and library and cemeteries to find info that I could.

I with others spent many a week at the Ft. Wayne, IN library, Salt Lake City library, Madison, WI library and many hours at Columbia, MO library just about every year from when I started. There was 4 of us who went to Iowa City every month during the good weather but now one has moved, one has passed and the other can't get out any longer and no fun to go by your self. So decided it was time to stop. This was before the internet so didn't have that to rely on but was just as well as have found a lot of wrong info on the internet. (I can't say mine is all right either) As much of it was not able to be proven for sure so just had to go by what we could find. But if anyone has proof of what you find is wrong in any of my books I would appreciate knowing it. We know every one is not 100% right as no one is perfect, even in research. New Data June 2017-GLT

So hope these books will be appreciated and enjoyed as much as I had putting them together. But I think now is the time to turn them over to someone else to enjoy as I can't get to the libraries any longer and only the internet to rely on and that isn't as much fun as going to the places where your ancestor's walked themselves.

You will notice different address's but the one above is correct.

HISTORY OF MACON COUNTY.

ber of Antioch Christian Church in which he is an elder. He also belongs to the Masonic lodge of Bloomington, Mo.

ALLEN J. VICKREY

(Farmer and Stock-raiser).

This valuable citizen was born in Wayne county, Ky., August 18, 1829. His parents, Abner and Nancy Vickrey, were respectively from Virginia and Kentucky, and moved to Missouri the year of his birth. They went first to Randolph county, but in 1832 located in Macon in what is now known as Bevier township, building a cabin in section 34, where the house now stands. Allen J. was educated in Callao township, and though his opportunities were limited, managed to secure a fair share of learning. In 1859 Mr. Vickrey married Miss Mary Gaines, daughter of Jefferson and Emily Gaines, of Randolph county. They have nine children: Francis M., John J., Abner, Emily C., George, Addie, Nellie M., Wilson S. and Elmer J. Mr. V. has been a member of the Grange lodge of Bevier township, and was at one time tax collector of that township. He also was in the path of the memorable cyclone of May 13, 1883, but, by the mercy of God, escaped with comparatively little injury, and is now in prosperous circumstances and of great service to the public. Mr. Vickrey is a man of liberal views and large mind, and a good example to those around him. He is a member of the Christian Church.

WILLIAM S. WATSON

(Coal-operator and Merchant).

Mr. Watson is an influential and wealthy citizen of Bevier township. He was born May 2, 1829, at New Castle, England, of William and Jane (Scott) Watson. He was educated at the public schools, and when a young man was apprenticed to a grindstone maker, at the conclusion of which period, being 22 years of age, he set sail for America. He went at once to New Haven, Conn., and thence to Middletown, working at stone work, a branch of grindstone making. In the latter part of 1851 he got work in the coal mines of Coshocton, O., but in a few years moved to Knoxville, Marion county, Ia., and until 1861 was engaged in farming and coal operating. He then moved to Macon county and locating in Bevier, opened one of the first coal mines in the county, known then and now as Shaft No. 3. Mr. Watson worked this mine until 1867, doing a profitable business. At that time all the mines consolidated into a joint-stock company, known as the Central Coal and Mining Company, the capital stock being $400,000. In 1868 Mr. W. withdrew from the company, and for several years thereafter busied himself with various speculative enterprises in Missouri and Iowa, prospecting for coal in both States. In 1881 he opened a coal shaft east of Bevier and has ever since continued to operate the mine known as Watson's mine. Mr. Watson was married in England, in 1849, to Miss Isabella Wardell, and has seven children: Isabella, Jane Ann, John W., Mary, Thomas, Edward and Anna. His two sons, Edward and Thomas, are interested with him in his mercantile house in Bevier. They carry a general stock, which they propose enlarging, making it one of the most extensive establishments of the kind in the county. The mine pays from $5,000 to $8,000 monthly. Mr. Watson is endowed with rare personal and mental graces. His manners stamp him as an elegant gentleman, while his brilliant conversational powers enchain his listeners and render his society a valuable addition to every social gathering.

CALLAO TOWNSHIP.

HARDIN P. BENNING, M.D.

(Physician and Surgeon).

Dr. Benning, one of the largest practitioners in Macon county, has been a resident of Callao, Missouri, since 1868, excepting a few years spent in Livingston county. His parents, both now dead, were natives of Virginia. They were John W. and Jane (Forsey) Benning. Hardin P. was born October 17, 1826, in Montgomery county, Mo. When he was five years of age his parents moved to Pike county, and in 1833 his father died. He lived on the farm with his mother until he was grown and then went to Ralls county, Mo., where he studied medicine under Dr. George E. Frazier, an eminent physician of that county. Dr. Benning received a fine education at Louisiana, Mo., in the Pike County Seminary. When his medical studies were completed he began practicing his profession in Monroe county, but as has been said before, moved in 1868 to Callao where he is still established in partnership with Dr. Campbell. He has a large and lucrative practice and is one of the most skilled physicians in the county. The Doctor, knowing that to no man is the tender comfort and cure of a good wife more necessary than to a physician, chose as the sharer of his joys and woes Miss Lucy E. True, their marriage taking place in 1856. To them were born seven children, four of whom, Mary J., James, Edgar S. and Maggie J., died in infancy; those now surviving are John H., Lucy V. and Ruth A. Mrs. Benning died in April, 1872, and in December, 1872, Dr. Benning espoused Miss Mary E. Collier, by whom he has had five children: Olive J., Hardin L., Bessie L., Anna S., and an infant who "climbed the golden stair" ere the little tongue had learned to lisp its mother's name. Dr. Benning is very popular in the community. He is a member of the Triple Alliance Lodge No. 38.

The youngest daughter Melissa's obit said she was youngest of six d. 1885. Other dau Nancy's obit said last child living in 1914. Married in 1825 Wayne Co. KY and moved to MO 1829. The census records don't agree with listing of children so maybe there were 9 and 3 died young and so obit of youngest was meaning of the six living? DEATH: Cemetery records and obit abstracted from the book "Macon Co. It is not known how many children she had as there were 6 listed in 1870 census but obit of one son who died 1902 said he was survived by 3 brothers and 3 sisters, which would be 7 in the family.

Summers Wright

Birth: Feb. 20, 1804
Wayne County
Kentucky, USA
Death: Jul. 7, 1887
Macon County
Missouri, USA

Summers Wright, son of Evans C. Wright and Rebecca Summers, was born February 20, 1804 in Wayne County, Kentucky. He married Naomi Coffey in 1825 in Wayne County, and the family moved to Missouri in 1829. Their children included: Elizabeth Moody, Mary Ann Daugherty, Serelda White, Reuben Alex Campbell Wright, Matilda Elliott, Nancy Catherine Elder, and Melissa J. Maddox.

Records concerning Summer Wright's burial are contradictory. The Missouri Death Register 1883-1893 and Summers Wright's obituary in Phyllis Mears' Macon County, Missouri Obituaries show he is buried at Mt. Tabor. However, based on family records, it appears Summers is buried in Bethel Cemetery, where Naomi is buried. An old tombstone seen in 1970 in the Bethel cemetery and now gone showed Summers Wright b. 1804 d. 1887 (taken from a rubbing). It is believed he is buried at Bethel.

Summers Wright siblings included:

Jemima was born in 1793 in Rowan County, North Carolina, married James Vestal on February 10, 1814 in Wayne County, Kentucky, and died after 1860.

Elizabeth Sarah "Betsy" was born in 1795 in Rowan County, North Carolina, married Jesse Mullinix on August 25, 1810 in Wayne County, Kentucky, and died in 1840 in Putnam County, Missouri.

Johnson B. was born in 1798 in Kentucky, married Elizabeth McCullom on June 18, 1817 in Wayne County, Kentucky, married Eliza Jane Trimble on February 20, 1840 in Randolph County, Missouri, and died in 1867 in Randolph

NOTES:

BIRTH: Info from obit, census records and cemetery records list birth date as 11 Jan 1830 which isn't right. Wives birth date in cem. records not right either.

MARRIAGE1: Not located mg rec but obit said md 1845 Macon, MO.

MARRIAGE2: Not checked for mg record but obit of Thomas said md aft 1901 to Mrs Mary Tuttle. There was a Mrs Margaret Posey Vandike age 92 in 1906 when she died and said a daughter Mrs Thomas Moody survive. Could be this 2nd wife?

DEATH: Cemetery records and obit abstracted from "Macon Co. MO Obituaries" by Phyllis Mears in book 3 pg 145:

"Major Thomas Moody, 86, died in Macon 4 Aug 1910 from a stroke. He was born in Wayne county, KY, near Monticello 23 Dec 1823. He came to Missouri in the spring of 1844 settling in Jackson twp. Louis; Stephen D. of LaPlata; Mary J. Chapman of Atlanta and N.M. Moody, the present County Clerk of Macon county. His wife died 22 Feb 1901 and afterwards he was married to Mrs Mary Tuttle, who survives. Besides his wife and children he leaves a sister, Mrs H. There was an obit of one Thomas Moody pioneer resident of Macon Co. who d. 1916 and buried in Oakwood cem. but don't know who this would be as this Thomas d. 1910 and he son Thomas died before he did.

"History of Randolph & Macon Co. MO 1884: pg 1019 has a lengthy article on Thomas Moody farmer and stock raiser. Some was in obit but some not. His father entered 120 acres of land in Macon Co. when he came in 1844, where he lived for 8 years then sold it and bought the adjoining property which he held until 1870. He was ordained a minister of the gospel on second Sunday in Nov 1844 in Mt Tabor Missionary Baptist Church in Macon Co. and for nearly 40 years the people of Macon, Randolph, Chariton, Linn, Shelby, Knox, Schuyler and Monroe counties have sat under his ministrations. He still preaches occasionally. His wife Jane Mercer Moody died 15 Nov 1869.

Then goes on to tell about Thomas who had five children living and had lost 4 and names them all. Thomas was a large landed proprietor and while he pays but little attention to smaller grains, raises from 300 to 500 acres of corn. He cuts 200 or 300 acres of meadow and has handled as many as 500 head of cattle. He intends emarking extensively in this business in future and his clear head and keen sagacity argue immense success therein. He has large influence in the public affairs and was instrumental in changing the county seat from Old Bloomington to its present locality, Macon City. In 1862 he was elected representative from the county, serving one term. He was member of the Bethel Christian Church.

WIFE Eliza/Elizabeth WRIGHT-1198

NOTES:

BIRTH: Obit of Elizabeth said she was 74 in 1901 which puts her birth at 1827 which could be right. Other sources have stated born 1832 and one source (cem) listed date as 27 Oct 1836 with marriage date of 1845 which isn't possible. We have the marriage record so know that is right.

county, Iowa. This gentle lady has borne him nine children, but the relentless reaper, death, has been busy in this fair garden, and four tender buds have fallen before his merciless sickle. Eugene, John B., James L., and Ella G. bloomed but to die. Those living are Mary L., Anna, Hattie, Ida M. and Lizzie D. Mr. Grady is highly regarded by his fellow-citizens, and was elected by them to the office of magistrate, a position he has filled most satisfactorily for the past 12 years. Mrs. Grady is a devout member of Mt. Tabor Missionary Baptist Church.

JAMES M. HOLLYMAN

(Section 22).

This man, a son of John Hollyman and Grace Neal, of Fairfax county, Va., was born in Marion county, Mo., April 7, 1829. His father and mother first met in Kentucky whither their parents had emigrated at an early day. They loved at first sight and were wed, remaining in the same State until after the birth of 12 children. They then, in 1828, came to Marion county, where James H., their youngest child, was born. Mr. Hollyman was an extensive farmer in Marion county until his death, November 10, 1861. He and his wife were Christian people and worshiped according to the faith of the Missionary Baptist Church. It was not until 1856 that James M. left Marion county and settled in Macon on his present farm, and also during this year he was married to Miss Susan M. Martin, of Monroe county, Mo. By this union there were two children: Mary Agnes, now the wife of Barnes B. Hosey, of Macon county, and John W. In 1864 Mr. Hollyman was left a widower, and for many years was faithful to the memory of the dear departed, but in 1877 falling a victim to the charms of Mrs. Sarah C., widow of Benjamin R. Waller, and a daughter of Oliver P. and Polly Lee, all of Macon county, he made her mistress of his home. Mrs. H. has one son by her first marriage, Robert Edwin Waller, and also one by the second, Alphonso. Mr. Hollyman has a fine prairie farm of 193 acres, upon which he raises 35 acres of corn and cuts 40 acres of meadow, also dealing to some extent in cattle as well as hogs. Mr. H. has the hearty good will of his neighbors, and has held for five years past the office of assessor. His eldest son, John W. Hollyman, born July 29, 1862, is himself a landed proprietor and a prosperous farmer. He owns 80 acres and raises corn and hay besides dealing in cattle and hogs like other farmers. He is a married man; his wife's maiden name was Crawford, daughter of Jonathan C. Crawford, of Macon county. Mrs. Hollyman, a most attractive lady, is a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

ELLIOTT H. MONTGOMERY

(Post-office, Ten Mile).

Jonathan Montgomery, father of Elliott H., was a native of Maryland, and married Miss Mary Eagle, of Ashland county, Ohio, by whom he had 11 children. He left Ohio for Missouri in the spring of 1863, and settled in Jackson township, Macon county, where he has lived since, a resident of Macon City. He and his wife belong to the M. E. Church. Elliott, born October 9, 1846, in Wayne county, Ohio, was almost grown when his parents came to Missouri, and has since his father's retirement from business taken charge of his farm, located in section 32, of Jackson township. This is a nice little place of 160 acres, mostly prairie land. It averages about 40 acres of corn, 30 of meadow, and Mr. Montgomery handles as much stock as is usual to a farm of this size. Mr. M. is a man of many mental and personal attractions, and therefore found no difficulty in persuading to share his fate Miss Mary E. McBride, one of the fairest daughters of Macon county, and the child of John and Mahala McBride, formerly of Ohio. They were married November 12, 1871, and the only drawback to their happiness is the fact that their union has been childless. This, however, has given them more time to devote to the outside world which repays them by a very flattering popularity.

THOMAS MOODY

(Farmer and Stock-raiser).

Mr. M. is a son of James Moody, of North Carolina, and Jane Mercer, of Kentucky. Mr. Moody with his family, all of his children with the exception of the youngest having been born in Kentucky, moved to Macon county, Mo., in the year 1844. Here he entered 120 acres of land upon which he lived for eight years and then sold and bought adjoining property. This he held until 1870. He was ordained a minister of the gospel on the second Sunday in November, 1844, in Mt. Tabor Missionary Baptist Church in Macon county, Rev. D. P. Davis and Euphrates Stringer officiating, and for nearly 40 years the people of Macon, Randolph, Chariton, Linn, Shelby, Knox, Schuyler and Monroe counties have sat under his ministrations. He still preaches occasionally. Mrs. Moody died November 15, 1869, after a residence in Macon county of over 25 years. But though Mr. Moody is nearly 82 years of age, his health seems still unimpaired. Of such good parents was born, in Wayne county, Ky., December 23, 1823, Thomas Moody, the subject of this sketch. His childhood and youth were passed in Kentucky and his education was received there. June 12, 1845, Mr. Moody married Miss Eliza Wright, whose parents, Summers Wright of Kentucky and Naomi Coffee of North Carolina, it may be remarked en passant, are the oldest married couple now living in the county of Macon. Mr. and Mrs. Moody have five children living: James, Stephen A. D., William A., Mary J., wife of Frank Chapman of Macon county, and Nicholas M. They have lost four: Summers W., John P., Marcus A. and Thomas P. Mr. Moody is a large landed proprietor and while he pays but little attention to smaller grains, raises from 300 to 500 acres of corn. He cuts 200 or 300 acres of meadow and has handled as many as 500 head of cattle. He intends embarking extensively in this business in future, and his clear head and keen sagacity argue immense success therein. Mr. M.

has large influence in the public affairs and was instrumental in changing the county-seat from Old Bloomington to its present locality, Macon City. In 1862 he was elected representative from the county, serving one term. He is indeed one whom the people are proud to honor in every way at their command. Mrs. M. is a member of the Bethel Christian Church.

DAVIDSON NICKELL

(Farmer, Section 2).

Mr. N. was born in Monroe county, W. Va., November 19, 1829, his father, Andrew Nickell, and mother, Catharine Humphreys, both being natives of the Old Dominion. Mr. Nickell, Sr., moved to Macon county, Mo., in the year 1838, and located in Jackson township, where he remained until his death in 1865. On the 17th of April, 1856, Mrs. Nickell died and Mr. N. then married Mrs. Elizabeth W., widow of James Saling, of Macon county. By her he had three daughters, who are all residents of the county. Davidson, who was one of a family of 12 children, of whom 11 are living, and all in Missouri, with the exception of one son in Montana, grew up on the farm and was given a good education. In 1855 he bought by pre-emption 160 acres of land, which he commenced the same year to improve. He has since added to his property until he is now one of the wealthiest farmers in the county, owning 960 acres in Jackson and Ten Mile townships. His farm is splendidly improved, containing one of the handsomest houses and finest barns in the township. He pays no attention to the production of wheat, but raises from 70 to 100 acres of corn and cuts 100 acres of meadow, handling from 50 to 100 head of cattle; also, from 40 to 50 hogs. Mr. Nickell married July 23, 1857, Miss Amanda F. Snell, daughter of Robert M. and Hannah Snell, of Macon county. There are six living children: Mary Virginia, wife of George Crawford; John A., David A., Viola, Joseph and Gertrude. Three died in infancy. Mr. N., his wife and one daughter are connected with the M. E. Church. This is one of the most charming families in the township.

JOHN C RICHARDSON

(Post-office, Economy).

Among the substantial farmers of Jackson township, none deserve "the goods the gods have given" more than him who is now spoken of. Jonathan F. Richardson, the father of John C., was born October 12, 1809, and came from Kentucky (his native state) with his first wife—who died in 1840—to Missouri, in the fall of 1838. On the 14th of April, 1842, Mr. R.'s second marriage occurred, Charlotte Dunnington, who had come from Tennessee in 1840, then becoming his wife. They settled in section 31 of what was then Ten Mile, but is now Jackson township, and until his death, November 3, 1875, Mr. Richardson was one of the leading farmers of the township. His end was the result of an accident. While attempting to get out of a wagon in his own field he fell, striking his head. The injury proved fatal. He was borne senseless to his home and never spoke again. Fortunately his wife was spared this terrible shock, her death having occurred May 23, 1874. There were two children by this union, John C. and Elizabeth, who married Thomas Sumpter June 14, 1874. John C., who was born March 4, 1843, had grown to manhood on his father's farm, and in 1876 purchased 220 acres of the homestead. To this he has since added, and now owns 294 acres of fine land. He devotes his attention to corn, hay and the handling of stock, as is customary among farmers, and while, perhaps, no "massive deeds or great" have been given him to do, yet, as the architect of his own fate, and remembering that

"Our to-days and yesterdays
Are the blocks with which we build," he has done his work well, and leaving no yawning gaps between, has

"Wrought with greatest care
Each minute and unseen part,
For God sees everywhere."

Thus, with a firm and ample base, the structure is a noble one, which, when complete, must tower from some lofty pinnacle to the very gates of the Golden City. Mr. Richardson's wife, to whom he was united November 3, 1867, was Miss Mary A. Newmyer, who was born October 16, 1845. She was of Macon county, and a daughter of J. S. Newmyer. They have five children: Marshal M., Henry H., Austin A., Lula M. and Hattie C. Cora B. died November 24, 1878, at the interesting age of four summers. Mr. and Mrs. R. are members of the Mt. Tabor Missionary Baptist Church.

MIDDLE FORK TOWNSHIP.

JOHN H. BROWNFIELD

(Merchant, Woodville).

Mr. Brownfield, post-master at Woodville and part owner and proprietor of the establishment known by the firm name of Walker & Brownfield, was born in Fayette county, Pa., November 1, 1847. His father, Thomas Brownfield, and mother, Miss Eliza Johnson, were natives of Pennsylvania, where Mr. Brownfield occupied a position of prominence. He served for several years each as sheriff, commissioner and judge in his native county. He came to Missouri in 1865, and locating near Madison, in Monroe county, he devoted him-

CHILD 1 - Anna - WADSWORTH-1575

Marriage record of Anna Wadsworth, daughter of E.S. Wadsworth of Round Grove Twp, to Wm. Cook by Edg. Rymer at Jan 11 Mar 1886.

Huet came to Macon county in 1868 and settled in Ten Mile township. Going to work at once with that energy and intelligence usually characteristic of Northern men, he has been entirely successful at his new home as a farmer and stock-raiser, and has won an enviable name in the community where he resides for neighborly and useful citizenship. He has been called to serve as president of the township board of education for a number of years, also as district school director, and has shown commendable zeal for the best interests of education in the community. He has a good farm of 330 acres, and is in a prosperous condition as a farmer. Mr. Huet is a Pennsylvanian by nativity, born in Beaver county, September 2, 1838. But when he was quite young (six years) his parents, Andrew and Nancy (Heman) Huet, removed to Illinois in 1846, to Daviess county, moving to Lafayette county, Wis., in 1853, where the father died in 1855. The mother died in 1847. Adolphus R. was reared on the farm in Wisconsin and remained there engaged in farming until his removal to Missouri in 1868. On the 7th of May, 1857, he was married to Miss Sarah A. Ingersoll, a daughter of Garrett and Mary (Metts) Ingersoll, formerly of Illinois. Her father now lives, however, in Macon county, her mother having died here some years ago. Mr. Huet's wife died June 18, 1879. She left him eight children: John A., George W., Mary J., William G., Nancy M., Ella E., Harry A. and Manly N. The youngest, Irving E., is deceased. Mr. Huet is a member of the M. E. Church, having joined the church in November, 1854, and is a trustee of the church at Mt. Zion, and also class leader and Sunday-school superintendent.

MORRIS JONES

(General Merchant and Farmer, La Port).

Mr. Jones, who has led a life of more than ordinary activity and been identified with various industrial and business pursuits, has, however, been settled at La Port for nearly 20 years, or since 1866. He comes of two old Massachusetts families, both his parents, Amos and Roxanna (Brockway) Jones, having been natives of that State and of families resident there for generations. They were among the pioneers of Trumbull county, Ohio, however, and Morris Jones was born there January 10, 1812. From an early day Ohio has had good public schools, and young Jones had the benefit of these as he grew up in Trumbull county. About the time, or a short time before, reaching his majority, he engaged as a traveling salesman of goods in something near the same line followed now by those who call themselves commercial travelers, which is a 'hi' falutin' name for the line of business that is a good deal older than the young men now engaged in it on the road with log-chain watch chains and ox-yoke seal rings. He continued as a traveling salesman until he was 24 years of age, and on the 24th of January, 1836, was married to Miss Elizabeth W. Winters, daughter of ——— and Elizabeth Winters, formerly of New Jersey. After his marriage Mr. Jones was engaged in various pursuits, including the operation of a tan yard and the manufacture of wagons and other business and industrial enterprises. On the 24th of August, 1852, Mr. Jones had the misfortune to lose his wife. In the meantime he had resumed selling goods and did business at various points in Ohio, having also ran store boats on the Ohio river. He also conducted other lines of business in different States and finally came to Missouri in 1865. The following May he came to Macon county and a year later located at Ten Mile township. Here he has since been engaged in merchandising and farming. Mr. Jones was married to his present wife July 29, 1864. She was a Miss Eliza C. Reid, a daughter of Joseph and Nancy Reid. By his present wife Mr. Jones has one child. There was also one child by his first wife, Stewart A., who died January 9, 1874, at the age of 29 and is buried at the cemetery in Quincy, Ill. Mr. Jones has 160 acres of land, which includes a neat and well improved farm. He has done a good, substantial business at La Port in the general store line from the beginning, and is widely and favorably known as a capable and upright business man. He and wife are members of the M. E. Church.

E. S. MADDOX

(Farmer; Post-office, Beverly).

Mr. M., an industrious, respected citizen of Ten Mile township, who has a farm of 160 acres, which is substantially and comfortably improved, is a native of Missouri, born in Monroe county, February 4, 1836, but came of Tennessee parents. His father was Jesse Maddox, and his mother's maiden name was Lucinda Simmons, both of whom are now deceased. They were among the early settlers of Monroe county, coming there from the Rhomboid State, which has produced such men as Jackson, Polk and Johnson, three presidents of the Republic, as early as 1834. Ezekiel S. was reared on the farm in Monroe county and when 23 years of age was married to Miss Melissa Wright, daughter of Sumner Wright, formerly of Kentucky, who came to Missouri in 1829. Mr. and Mrs. Maddox have been blessed with six children. Melissa J., the wife of Mr. Maddox, has been a resident of Macon county for many years. He is a man who stands high with all who know him, for his life has been such that no reproach attaches to his name, but, on the contrary, he has ever striven to make himself of some value to the community as a neighbor and citizen by favoring law and order and by setting an example of industry and faithful discharge of all duties through his own conduct. Mr. Maddox is conceded to be one of the upright and valuable citizens of Ten Mile township.

CHRISTOPHER MEISNER

(Farmer; Post-office, Ettle).

Among the thrifty German-American farmers and worthy citizens of Ten Mile township, the name of the subject of the present sketch is fully entitled to mention, for he is a self-made man and in winning

 He preached extensively in Randolph, Macon, Howard Co. MO occasionally visiting counties south of the Missouri River and was remarkable succesful in baptizing many and establishing churches. In 1841 he moved to a farm in Green Co. not far from Springfield, where he remained until the death of his 1st wife 23 Mar 1843. During the years he resided there, he preached as he had opportunity and planted many congregations in southwest MO.

Allen Wright, son of Eben and Rebecca Wright, was born in Wayne County, Kentucky, September 19th, 1809. On July 2nd, 1833 he married Elizabeth DeJarnette, daughter of John DeJarnette, who was born in Kentucky. He then moved to Vermilion County, Illinois, where his oldest son, James H., was born. In 1840, he came to Missouri and settled near the western boundary of the state. To care for his family, he worked in the field during the week, preaching on Sabbath night and "fairs", returning in the forenoon. He preached with energy, and often without remuneration.

Allen remained occasionally in Kentucky, where he visited relatives, occasionally visiting churches south of the Missouri River and was particularly successful in reaching men and exhorting churches. In 1841 he moved to a farm in Green County not far from Springfield, where he remained until the death of his wife, on March 13th 1843. Allen Wright

Birth: Nov. 19, 1809
Wayne County
Kentucky, USA
Death: Jul. 19, 1860
Lafayette County
Missouri, USA

Allen Wright, son of Evan and Rebecca Wright, was born in Wayne County, Kentucky November 19th, 1809. On July 3rd, 1828 he married Elizabeth Summers. Shortly after this he moved to Alabama, where he remained a short time. He then moved to Vermillion County, Illinois, where his oldest son, James N., was born. In 1840, he came to Missouri and settled on a farm western Randolph County. To care for his family, he worked in the field during the week, preaching on Saturday night and Sunday, returning to the field on Monday morning. He preached without salary, and often without compensation.

Allen preached extensively in Randolph, Macon and Howard counties, occasionally visiting counties south of the Missouri River and was remarkably successful in baptizing many and establishing churches. In 1841 he moved to a farm in Green County not far from Springfield, where he remained until the death of his wife, on March 23rd 1843. During the years he resided there, he preached as he had opportunity, and planted many congregations in southwest Missouri.

In 1846 he moved to Georgetown, in Pettis County, where, on December 22nd 1846 he married Lydia Virginia Fristoe. At a meeting held in a grove in that county, two young ladies made themselves quite disruptive, much to the annoyance of the preacher. He therefore reproved them sharply in very plain language. The next morning he started on his way to a neighboring town. While passing through dense woods, a young man dashed up behind him and announced that he was the brother of the young ladies whom he had so severely reproved, and that he had come to punish him for the offence; that he must get down from his horse and fight him. The preacher told him he was a man of peace and did not want to fight. The young man was incorrigible, so the preacher tied his horse, removed his coat and announced himself ready. The young man rushed upon him, and in an instant was knocked sprawling on the ground. The preacher then said, "Young man, I bear you no malice; you forced this battle on me; you have been badly worsted. Now if you will never tell it, I will not," and he did not, till just before his death, and then he would give no name.

Shortly after his second marriage Wright moved to Lexington, Missouri, and remained there for more than ten years. It was here, December 18, 1856 with Allen Wright at his bedside, that John T. Johnson died. Wright spent much of his time evangelizing in Lafayette County. He had become a fine speaker and a man of great influence among the churches. He soon became a recognized leader. It was here he lost his second wife (on May 24th, 1857) by whom he had two children, Allen Wright, Jr., and Ella V.

In the fall of 1858 or early in 1859, he married Lizzie R. DeJarnett of Pettis County. He bought a farm there and began to preach in the region round about. During the summer of 1859 his health began to fail. He and his wife made a visit to the Republican Church in Lafayette County in the summer of 1860. While there, he was taken sick at the house of his old friend and brother, Anderson Warren. He could not have fallen into kinder hands, or among a people who loved him better. His sickness resulted in his death. He passed away on July 19th 1860, mourned by thousands who had come into the kingdom of God through his influence.

J.W. McGarvey, then of Dover, Missouri, and T.P. Haley (Wright had converted Haley) then of Lexington, were called to preach his funeral. A large crowd was present on that hot July day at the old Republican Church about two miles southeast of Higginsville. All wept and mourned him as if he had been a member of their own household. Since he had organized the church there, his devoted brethren claimed his body, laying him to rest only a few feet from the pulpit where he had so often preached the gospel. They erected a monument to his memory which reads:

HISTORY OF RANDOLPH COUNTY.

agricultural life, for which he had a decided preference. He remained at home engaged in farming with his father until his marriage, which took place on the 27th of March, 1872, when Miss Denie B. Garth became his wife. Her parents were Garland and Mary (Burnley) Garth. Miss Garth came to Missouri in the year 1866 and lived with her uncle, Mr. D. C. Garth, her father having died during the war. The Garths were originally of Albemarle county, Virginia. Mr. White and his wife after their marriage set up for themselves, and he engaged in farming in Howard county, or rather continued it. In 1875 he removed to Randolph county, where he bought the Minor Rucker farm, situated four miles west of Huntsville, where he still resides. This farm contains nearly 300 acres of fine land, and is one of the choice places of the township; is within one mile of the celebrated Randolph medical spring. Mr. White makes somewhat a specialty of stock-raising, and is quite successful. Mr. and Mrs. White have three children: Sue Mary, Daniel Boone and Fannie D. Burnley died at the age of four. Mrs. W. is a member of the M. E. Church South.

JAMES WILLIAM WIGHT

(County Clerks of Randolph County, Hartsville, and Farmer and the Stock-raiser), Mr. Wight was elected to his present position in November, 1878, and has held the office ever since that time, having been re-elected in 1882, and he still has two years to serve of his second term. Mr. Wight's contest for the office, or rather for the nomination for the office, the first time he ran, was one of more than ordinary spirit, there being four prominent and popular men beside himself before the convention for the nomination, at the time he was chosen to bear that honor. He had never figured in public life before, except as a private citizen, but he was well and favorably known to the people of the county, and he was chosen, not through any sharp management of his canvass, but because he was regarded as the best man for the place. Having been thoroughly educated as he grew up, and being a man of high character and excellent business qualifications, these considerations added to his urbane manners and genial disposition so recommended him to the people and the convention that his defeat was hardly less than impossible, even with the worthy opponents he had to meet in the convention. His nomination was effected, however, without bitterness, and his election at the succeeding poll was one of more than ordinary enthusiasm and by a majority highly complimentary to him personally. The expectations of the public have not been disappointed by his subsequent career. He discharged the duties of his office for the first four years with so much efficiency, fairness, and general satisfaction that he was again triumphantly nominated and elected, and unless all signs are to be interpreted the reverse of what they indicate, the end is not yet. While Mr. Wight is as capable and efficient an officer as there is in the county, the principal cause of his success is his great personal popularity. Though dignified and not too free and easy, he is of such a gentlemanly, generous disposition, respectful and obliging, and courteous and kind to all, that those with whom he is thrown in contact seem to invariably and naturally come to regard him as worthy of implicit trust, and to look on him as a friend and one who would help them if in need. He is not called "Jim Wight" by everybody who knows him, but all respect and esteem Mr. Wight and feel that they are doing the proper thing to favor him, for they know very well that there is no kindness in his power which he would not gladly do them. Thus, while he is popular, he is respected and looked on with that consideration to which his character and personal worth entitle him. Mr. Wight was born and reared in this county and is a son of James F. and Frances A. (Burton) Wight, of this county, who came here from Kentucky in 1840. His father has long been one of the successful and influential farmers and stock-raisers of the county. James W. is the only son, and was born June 13, 1842. Brought up to the age of 16 on the farm, he then advanced from the preparatory school to Mount Pleasant College, then under the presidency of Dr. William R. Rothwell, now at the head of William Jewell College, and one of the most scholarly and accomplished educators in the State. Young Wight remained at Mount Pleasant until his graduation in the class of 1863, having received the highest honors of the same at the hands of the president of the college whose duty it was, according to a time-honored custom of the institution, to bestow it upon the most deserving. Several of the representatives of the class have become distinguished in life. Mr. Wight's tastes have always inclined him to an agricultural life, and after his graduation he returned to the farm and identified himself with farming and stock-raising. In these lines of industry he continued without interruption until his election to the office of county clerk, and became very successful. He is still prominently identified with the agricultural interests of the county, and is justly regarded as one of the most intelligent, progressive and enterprising farmers and stock men in the county, and is quite comfortably situated. On the 12th of May, 1868, Mr. Wight was married to Miss Aurelia T. Fullinwider, a daughter of Henry W. and Jane A. (Shipman) Fullinwider, now of Bourbon county, Kentucky. Mr. Fullinwider is prominently identified with the Female College at Millersburg, Ky. Mrs. Wight is a lady of rare accomplishments and many graces of personal manners. Mr. and Mrs. Wight have two children: James Winter and Fannie Amanda. Both parents are members of the M. E. Church South.

GIDEON V. WRIGHT

(Proprietor of the City Bakery and Grocery Store, Huntsville).

Of the thousands of brave-hearted men who crossed the plains and scaled the summits of the cloud-capped Cordilleras to the Pacific coast, between 1848 and '52, to seek their fortunes on the golden coast, not a few went out from home and friends never to return. Among these was the father of the subject of this sketch, Amos Wright. He and his wife, whose maiden name was Mary Belsher, were from Kentucky, and came to Randolph county in an early day, settling on a farm near Huntsville. Here Gideon V. Wright was born on the 17th of April, 1843. Six years afterwards, in 1849, the father went to California, where he died the following year. The mother still resides in this county and lives in Huntsville. Gideon learned the baker's trade under John P. Clink, and worked at it for four or five years. Later along he engaged in the bakery business at Macon City, and during the latter part of the war, served in the militia. After the war Mr. Wright continued to follow the baker's business, and was for a time engaged in the saloon business. In 1874, however, he resumed the bakery business at Huntsville, and has since continued it. A baker of long experience, he understands his business thoroughly, and his breads, cakes, pastries, etc., have a high reputation, not only for excellence of ingredients and architectural design, but for cleanliness and general desirability. He also has a stock of groceries in connection with his other business, and has a good custom in this line. On the 17th of April, 1866, Mr. Wright was married to Miss Eliza J. Skinner, a daughter of Everett Skinner, of this county. They have one child, Walter W., now a youth 15 years of age. Mr. Wright is a member of the I. O. O. F. and has been since 1866. He is also connected with the Knights of Honor.

PRAIRIE TOWNSHIP.

J. R. ADAMS

(Farmer, Post-office, Renick).

Mr. A. is a son of J. Q. Adams and Elizabeth Foster, of Kentucky, and was born in the neighborhood of his present home December 30, 1852. He had one brother and one sister, both of whom are dead. His father died when he was only a child, four years of age, and left him to the care of a very delicate mother. She lived until he had turned his fifteenth year, when she, too, was taken when she was most needed, just as he was budding into manhood. But her counsel had made such impressions upon his character that they have never been erased. He grew up in the country and was given a good education, and when his studies were completed he settled on a farm and was married, October 22, 1874, to Miss Emma Holloway, daughter of Edwin Holloway, who removed with his parents from Kentucky to this State when a boy. They have had three children, one of whom now survives: Carrie E., born December 11, 1880. Mr. Adams and wife are members of the Christian Church, both having joined before their marriage. Mrs. Adams' grandfather Holloway has grown old in the services of the Christian ministry.

ELDER WILLIAM B. ANDERSON

(Post-office, Renick).

Nearly 60 springs have put forth their tender buds, and as many summers blushed and smiled and passed since this reverend and venerable man of God first opened his eyes on the sin and misery of the world. It was in Green county, Ky., on a bleak February morn., that angels rejoiced over the birth of one more worker in the vineyard of their beloved Master. Rev. Robert T. Anderson and Martha Lowry, his wife, parents of the good man whose pen portion is here given, were both from Virginia, but moved to Kentucky at an early day and there passed the remainder of their lives. Rev. Robert T. was a man of vast erudition, and was occupied during the larger portion of his life in sowing the seeds of knowledge in the fertile mind of youth. He was of marked prominence in his profession, and was at the head of the Baptist Association. His son, William B., was principally educated under his scholarly eye. Though growing up on a farm in Christian county, part of the time he attended the common schools, and for one year was at Bethany College. He early showed a disposition to be a servant of Christ, at the age of 16 joining the Baptist Church. When he was 22 he attached himself to the Christian Church, and the following year (1847) came to Missouri. Two years later he began speaking in public, and in 1850 was ordained in the ministry, appointed for the salvation of mankind, since which time he has labored without ceasing to bring the lost sheep into the fold. He has been a faithful watchman and steward of his Lord and a whole-some example and pattern to his flock. He won his charge of the Christian Churches at Renick and Salem. On the 18th of November, 1850, Mr. Anderson was married to Miss Eupha, daughter of F. K. Collins, one of the most respected residents of Randolph county. After his marriage Mr. Anderson was engaged in teaching in different places for some time. Indeed, altogether, he has taught not less than 25 years. He has lived, since 1856, on a farm, and has devoted his leisure moments to its improvement. It contains 160 acres of land, 60 of which are under the plow and in meadow land. He has a double log house, a good barn and nice bearing orchard, including some grape and other small fruits. Mrs. Anderson is also a member of the Christian Church. There are two children: Frank P. and Sallie C.

WILLIAM N. ARMSTRONG

(Merchant, Renick).

Mr. A. is a native of Illinois, born in Hancock county, February 15, 1850. His father, W. N. Armstrong, and mother, a Miss Haymaker, were from Pennsylvania, the latter dying when the subject of this sketch was but two years of age. William lived on a farm in Illinois until he was a grown man, and was the recipient of a good common school education. He came to Missouri in the winter of raised there, and continued at his home until after his marriage, which occurred October 27, 1842. Miss Nancy Alexander, daughter of Joshua Alexander, formerly from Kentucky, was the lady he chose to grace his fireside; but not long was she spared to him; in 1856 her soul "drifted out on the shadowy river which flows forever to an unknown sea." Mrs. Wirt left one son, Joshua A., who is now married, with a family of his own. After Mr. Wirt was married he came to Randolph and established himself on a farm not far from where he now resides, then entering land and improving his present farm. When his wife died he went back to Boone county and lived with his father for three years. Having known the joy to be found in the companionship of a good helpmeet, in 1858 he persuaded Mrs. Mary J. Collins, the widow of Reuben Collins and daughter of Samuel Martin, formerly of Kentucky, to share his fate for weal or woe. Mrs. Wirt has one son by her previous marriage, F. K. Collins, and to her second husband she bore a daughter, Bettie. Mr. Wirt is one of the substantial farmers of the township. He has 213 acres of fine land, 160 of which are fenced for cultivation and pasturage. He lives in a handsome two-story residence, with one-story ell, and attached to the home place are good stables and other necessary buildings. His orchard deserves particular mention, being filled with a large and select variety of fruits. Mr. W. is a God-fearing man, worshipping according to the faith of the Christian Church. Mrs. W. belongs to the Baptist denomination.

WILLIAM WIRT

(Section 2, Post-office, Kenick).

Mr. W., a brother of Thomas C., was born in Boone county, December 1, 1825. He spent his youth on the farm in that county, and came, in 1852, when a young man, to Randolph, of which he has ever since been a resident. In March, 1855, he was married to Miss Lucy Ellen, daughter of Rodger Robinson, of Kentucky. Mrs. Wirt was a native of Kentucky, and lived there until a woman. Mr. Wirt owns 253 acres of land, of which 213 are fenced and in cultivation. He also has fine pasturage. His residence is commodious and comfortable, two stories and well built. His farm is well stocked with everything necessary to the comfort and maintenance of his family, including two splendid barns and all other necessary out-buildings. He has a fine orchard. Mr. and Mrs. Wirt have six children living: Mildred, wife of Rufus Fullington; Adam, Lucy M., who is one of the best of the county teachers; Radford, Robinson and Maggie. Two pledges of their love died in infancy. Mrs. Wirt is a consistent member of the Baptist Church, and Mr. W. is an ancient Mason.

ZEPHANIAH WRIGHT

(Farmer and Stock-raiser, Feeder and Dealer).

Mr. W. was born January 29, 1837, while his parents, Joshua Wright and Mary Sweeney, were on the road between Illinois and Missouri.

They came first from Kentucky in 1836, and lived in Illinois only one year. On arriving at their destination they settled in Boone county, but after a four years' stay moved to Randolph. Here Zephaniah Wright grew to manhood, and shared the advantages in schooling common to the neighborhood. In 1861, on account of the disturbed state of the country, consequent upon the eruption of Civil War, Mr. W., with that discretion which is the better part of valor,

"Folded his tents like the Arabs,
And as silently stole away."

Kansas received him into her bosom for the next five years, and in the spring of 1866 he returned to Randolph. He bought one place and lived upon it two years, then sold it and bought land not far distant, where he now resides. He has a farm of 347 acres, all fenced and in pasture and cultivation. Upon this there is a good comfortable house with out-buildings, etc.; also a thrifty young orchard. Mr. W. possesses besides, 160 acres of land, all fenced and in meadow pasture, and he owns still another tract of 120 acres, partially improved, and containing a small house. He feeds on an average 150 head of cattle yearly, and about the same number of hogs, sometimes shipping, sometimes selling at home to other shippers, and to a limited extent, buying for shipping purposes. Mr. Wright is of shrewd and acute perceptive faculties, and with keen sagacity he guides his craft safely through the inevitable snags and shoals that but too often prove fatal to other voyagers. He showed the same wisdom in selecting a wife as in the conduct of his business affairs, when he married March 31, 1861, Miss Elizabeth, daughter of Henderson Sims, formerly of Virginia. Mrs. Wright herself was born and raised in Boone county. There are five children: Lincoln, Joshua H., Lizzie, William M. and Mary E. Two died at tender ages.

SILVER CREEK TOWNSHIP.

JAMES H. BAGBY

(Saw and Grist Miller, and Farmer and Stock-raiser).

Mr. Bagby, one of the energetic and successful men of this township, and one of its highly respected citizens, was left an orphan when but nine years of age, his mother having died in 1838, and his father in 1847. His parents were William and Virginia (Harrison) Bagby, his father a carpenter by trade, and originally from Kentucky, and his mother of the well-known Harrison family, and formerly of Virginia, but by way of Kentucky to this State. Their home was near Roanoke, in Randolph county, where James H. was born, September 20,

Nothing Randolph + Macon times 1884.

CHARLES FREDERICK WRIGHT

(Deceased).

The subject of this sketch, an old citizen of Macon City, died at his residence in this place on the 1st of September, 1882, at the age of 74, having been born March 3, 1808. He was a native of New Haven, Conn., and was a son of William Wright, originally of England, a sailor by occupation. Charles F. went to sea when a boy and lost his leg, off Cape Hatteras. It was amputated three times before he recovered. He then came ashore and learned the tailor's trade, locating at Richmond, Va., where he worked for some time. He there met Miss Zelean Dean, to whom he was married in 1837. From Richmond they went to Galveston, but came to St. Louis in 1838, removing the same year to Glasgow, settling soon afterward at Roanoke, where Mr. Wright followed his trade for 30 years. From there he came to Macon City, where he followed merchant tailoring for some 14 years and until his death. For many years before the war he was a slave auctioneer and was known far and wide as such, being regarded as the best auctioneer who ever knocked a coon from the block. He sold and hired negroes under the hammer throughout Howard, Charlton, Macon and other counties. His widow still survives him, a venerable silver-haired old lady, respected by all who know her. Her father dying when she was quite young, she was reared by her uncle, Isaac Puckett, who ran the Eagle tavern at Richmond, Va., and was proprietor of the Broad Rock Race Course, a four-mile track. Mr. and Mrs. Wright had a family of four children: Christopher, Rucker, a merchant-tailor at Ft. Scott; Adelia, now Mrs. Willis Worner; and Martha, now Mrs. Eyan C. Wright. The mother with her eldest son and youngest daughter reside at the old Palmer homestead in Macon. Christopher Wright was born at Roanoke, Howard county, May 19, 1840, and as he grew up he learned the mason's and plasterer's trade, which he now follows. In 1861 he enlisted in Company H, Fourteenth Illinois infantry, under Col. John M. Palmer. He participated in Fremont's campaign in this State and the Mississippi River campaign. He was also in the North Georgia campaign and was honorably discharged in 1864. In 1865 he became first lieutenant of Co. F, in Pharo Denny's regiment of Missouri State Militia, and served until disbanded by the Government. He is a member of the G. A. R.

GEORGE YUNCKER

(Township and City Collector and Dealer in Boots and Shoes, Macon).

Mr. Yuncker, one of the popular citizens of Macon City, and who was one of the bravest of the brave men who fought to uphold the Union and the old flag during the late war, is of Teutonic-French stock, and was himself born in the Land of Vines, in the province of Alsace, July 13, 1833. His parents were Nicholas and Christine Yuncker, and his father through several generations was originally from the other side of the Rhine. The mother died when George was a lad about 10 years of age and soon afterwards the father, bringing his children, came to America, landing at New Orleans, but thence proceeded up the river into Ohio. George grew up in Ohio and learned the shoemaker's trade at Fremont. Subsequently he worked as journeyman in Ohio, Michigan and Illinois, including the city of Chicago. In 1859 he engaged in business at Kankakee, Ill., and was there when the war broke out. Early in 1861 he enlisted in Co. G, Fifty-first Illinois volunteer infantry, and served until honorably discharged, a period of two years and nine months. He was sergeant of his company and participated in many of the hardest-fought battles of the war. At the battle of Chickamauga, but seven of his company escaped unhurt, the balance being either killed or wounded, and he, himself, was wounded no less than seven times, being as he was though shot all but to pieces. But he was placed in the hospital and in due time recovered. Following this he received his discharge. Returning to Kankakee, he came from there to Missouri in the fall of 1865, and to Macon City the year following. Here he worked for some time at his trade and then established his present business, which he has since continued. He is now serving his third year as city collector and his second as township collector. He is quartermaster of the G. A. R. at this place, and votes the way he shot, the Republican ticket, though in local affairs he votes for the man, a sort of go-as-you-please ballot. His first vote was cast for John C. Fremont. January 2, 1872, he was married to Miss Libbie Trew, a native of Ohio. They have three children: Marion, Minnie and Lizzie. He and wife are both members of the Presbyterian Church.

SURRY COUNTY TOWNSHIPS

— INCLUDING SCHOOLS FROM EARLY 1900s —

Haynes, St. Simons Isl, Ga., and Loraine Armfield Haynes, Sag Harbor, N.Y.

Lelia, Mr. Woodruff's second wife, died April 12, 1945. About 1948 he married Bernice Lett of Ft. Myers, Fla.

Mr. Woodruff was interested in the local citizens' well-being. His own water line, run from the mountains, provided Lowgap citizens water at a nominal fee. His own telephone line to Galax, a distance of 12 miles, summoned a doctor for many local people. When the D&W Shirt Co. became unprofitable, he leased the building to textile firms at token rates so the local women would have a place to work. T.N. was a member of Mtn. View Baptist Church and is buried in its cemetery.

Mr. Woodruff relaxed after the Christmas evergreen rush by going deep sea fishing with friends and brothers in south Florida. Trolling for big tarpon, etc., from a party boat was his delight. "The fish pond," cabin and fishing club afforded his family and friends many hours of recreation and fun.

When Mr. Woodruff died April 14, 1961, he left a void in Lowgap and in his family that has never been filled.

GEORGE AND LENORE DALTON WORRELL FAMILY

George Worrell was born 20 May 1871 to Joseph Worrell and Emily Shinnault.

Lenore Dalton was born 21 June 1874 along with a twin sister Caldouia to Henry Clay Dalton and Tabitha Mabry.

On the 17 December 1891, George and Lenore were united in marriage. They lived most of their life close to Worrell Church in Carroll Co. Va.

In their old age they broke up housekeeping and came to Mt. Airy to stay with different ones of their children, also one daughter who stayed across the mountain.

George passed away 10 Feb. 1949. Lenore passed away 12 Jan. 1975 at the age of 100 years. They are both buried in the Worrell Cem. within walking distance of their home.

George and Lenore were both very talented people. George did carpentry work, but was a brick mason by trade and mostly built chimneys for people. He could do blacksmith work and had a blacksmith shop at his home. He also did cobbler work and made shoes and mended them for his neighbors and family.

Lenore was a very good homemaker. She quilted, embroidered, crocheted, appliqued, and did alot of sewing all, with her fingers. She had a spinning wheel and had been married around 14 years when she got her sewing machine. George used the sewing machine to sew shoes on, which was not to Lenore's liking.

They raised all the food they ate and Lenore put up her own food. She was a very good cook and one of her granddaughters said she always loved to go stay with her grandma because they always had plenty of good food to eat. They had a springhouse where they kept their milk and butter and anything they wanted to keep cool. They kept their can food and apples and other vegetables in a cellar. They had a meat house to keep their meats stored in.

Lenore also entertained her family by playing the fiddle and the conastina. Alot of these talents came down to George and Lenore descendants.

Records show that they had 10 children, Amos Worrell who married Eller Jarrell, Marion Worrell who married Maryetta McRoberts, Prince Worrell who married Alice Adaline Gates, Tabitha "Myrtle" who married Spurgeon McGrady, Heath Worrell who married Dona McRoberts, Denver Worrell who married Stevens, Jesse Worrell who passed away at 9 months. Clyde Worrell who married Evelyn Goins, "Mary" Mageline who married Barney Hall; and an infant. There are 3 of these children still living: Myrtle, Mary, and Clyde.

PRINCE AND ALICE GATES WORRELL FAMILY

Prince Worrell was born 31 Dec. 1897 to George Worrell and Lenore Dalton.

Alice Adline Gates was born 24 May 1896 to Charles Solomon Gates and Eliza Belton.

Prince lived in Carroll Co. Va. close to Worrell Church while he was growing up. When he was in his teen-age years he went to Galax Va. and got enough education to teach school. Then he started teaching school at Willis Gap Va.

During this time he started staying at the home of Charlie Gates who by this time was married to his 2nd wife Emily Worrell. Emily and Prince were first cousins.

Charlie had a daughter named Alice Adline. Prince and Alice fell in love.

On the 31 Dec. 1915 Prince and Alice walked from Willis Gap to Mt. Airy where they got married by Sam Pace at his home on Franklin St. Then they had dinner at Bob Belton's cafe on Main St. who was Alice's Uncle.

They stayed at Charlie and Emily's home until they moved into an old sawmill house up in the mountains. There they raised their own vegetables and grandma Alice said they didn't have to plow the land, they could just dig into the side of the mountain and plant their corn and beans and everything would really grow.

The woman whose land they lived on had a chestnut orchard. Grandma and Daddy Prince would pick up the chestnuts and the woman would give them half of whatever she sold them for.

Then Prince went to Red Jacket W. Va. to do carpenter work. Alice stayed at his parents home across the mountain.

Later they moved to Mt. Airy, N.C. where Prince went to work in the furniture factory. He always kept books or worked in the shipping department.

Grandma ran a store. One time they lived beside a Dry Bridge on Main St. and ran a meat market. Daddy Prince also did carpentry work for people.

Then Grandma worked for a woman in a candy kitchen on Lebanon St. They made the candy in the kitchen and then carried it down on Main St. to a store to sell.

Prince and Alice had 3 children: (1.) Vernon "Woodrow" who married Phoebe Elizabeth Goins. They had 5 children Vernon Dallas, Cecil Wilbur, Shelby Jean, Brenda Faye and Clinton Dennis.

(2.) Nora "Frances" who married Elliott Paul Draughn. They had 3 children "Esther" Paul, "Nora" Elyet, "Andrew" Myers Elliot. Elliot passed away 27 Feb. 1979.

(3.) Lillie Forrest who married Gilbert Aaron Draughn. They had 4 children Gilbert Aaron Jr., Trent Mitchell, Ronald Dean, and Deborah Forrest.

Prince passed away 21 Jan. 1972. Alice is still living in Mt. Airy and will be 86 on her next birthday.

Gideon Wright III was born about 1726. He was the son of John and Ruth Ludlam Wright. Gideon Wright and his brother Hezekiah Wright served in the French and Indian War. After the French and Indian War, Gideon and Hezekiah Wright moved to North Carolina where both become prominent. In 1766 Gideon Wright was appointed one of the King's Justices. He was living in the part of North Carolina that was to become Surry County.

The first courthouse in Surry County was located on Gideon Wright's farm. This property was on the east side of the Yadkin River, about a mile south of the Donnah Bridge on Highway 67, between East Bend and Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The first court was held May 22, 1771, and continued to be held at the Gideon Wright farm for four years. At that time Surry County included what is now Forsyth, Stokes, Yadkin, Wilkes and other counties to the west.

Gideon Wright, like some other Surry County men, was a Loyalist (Tory) in the American Revolution. Col. Gideon Wright was the leader of the Tories at the Battle of Shallowford October 14, 1780. After the Revolution, the land of Gideon Wright and his brother Hezekiah Wright was confiscated.

In Charlestown, South Carolina in 1782, Col. Gideon Wright is listed as a refugee from North Carolina.

The children of Gideon Wright and his wife Elizabeth Durling Wright were: Sarah, Hezekiah, Elizabeth, Susannah and Catherine.

It is not known how many of the Wright children remained in Surry County, but certainly some of them did. A daughter Elizabeth Wright, born in 1760, married Laughlin Flynn. Two of their daughters married sons of Capt. Thomas Poindexter. Rebecca Flynn married Archibald Poindexter. THE GROVER CLEVELAND WRIGHT FAMILY

Grover Cleveland Wright was one of twelve children born on a farm near Tobaccoville, N.C., to Martha CeAnzie Newsom Wright and William Goodwin "Buck" Wright. He was born on August 30, 1893, and died on July 13, 1954, at N.C. Baptist Hospital, Forsyth County, N.C. He was the grandson of Martha Elizabeth Taylor Newsom and George Newsom. He was also the grandson of Jack Wright. He was a descendant of Polly Lucy Barham Newsom and Jacob Newsom who were married in 1762. Jacob Newsom was a veteran of the Revolutionary War. He was born in South Hampton, Va., and died near Tobaccoville, N.C., in 1840. He served in the Edmonds Company and was present at the surrender of Cornwallis at the Battle of Yorktown, Va., on October 19, 1781. Grover Cleveland Wright's brothers and sisters were William Edgar (Will), Minnie, Zebulon (Zeb), John, Pete, Agnes, Annie, Ernest, Jarvis (J.B.) and two infant children who died at birth.

Grover C. Wright.

On February 9, 1918, Grover Cleveland Wright married Roxie Wenora Ashburn, daughter of John Samuel and Ida Mae Ashburn Ashburn. They were married at the home of Mrs. Martha Creed, Price Street, Mt. Airy, N.C., by Reverend C.C. Haymore. They had seven children, Cletis Goodwin Wright, Dale David Wright, Curtis Hylton Wright, Anzie Alease Wright, Helen Loudene Wright, Barbara Ann Wright and Donald Rayburn Wright. They were both charter members of the Second Baptist Church, Price Street, Mt. Airy, N.C., which later became Haymore Memorial Baptist Church, Rockford Street, Mt. Airy, N.C. Mr. Wright was a lifelong member and a deacon of the church, and Mrs. Wright was a lifelong member and Sunday School extension worker for sixty-two years.

Cletis Goodwin Wright lives in Chesapeake, Va., and is married to Helen Lee Noel, daughter of Ruth Clark and Stafford Noel. They have one son, Rhon Noel Wright, who is married to Elisa Ruhl. Cletis served in the U.S. Marines for four years during World War II. Dale David Wright also served in World War II. He was a waist gunner on a B-29 in the United States Air Force. He was killed in action over Nagoya, Japan, in March, 1945. He was 22 years old.

Curtis Hylton Wright lives in Mount Airy, N.C., and is married to Betty Jean Johnson, daughter of Etta and Richard Johnson. They have one daughter, Tamra Jean, who is married to Ronald Foster Thomas. Anzie Alease Wright lives in Mount Airy, N.C., and is married to R.C. Lambert, son of Pearl Lewis and Walter Franklin Lambert. They have one son, Ray Calvin Lambert Jr., who is married to Elizabeth Lynn Jackson. They also have a daughter, Joan Kathryne, who is married to Robert Andrew "Andy" Collins. Helen Loudene Wright lives in Kernersville, N.C., and is married to Rev. William Paul Riggs, son of Nellie and Bill Riggs. They have four children: Cynthia Leigh who is married to Buel Ernest (B.E.) Coone, and has one daughter, Meredith; Nancy Lynne Riggs Minor, who has one son, Jason; William Paul Riggs Jr., who is married to Kathy Thomas; and Helen LuAnne Riggs, who is married to Steven Douglas Branson. Barbara Ann Wright lives in Pilot Mountain, and is married to James Henry Spearman. She has one daughter, Frances Ann. Donald Rayburn Wright lives in Mount Airy, and is married to Evelyn Doris Bowman, daughter of Goldie Bolt and J. Ray Bowman. They have one daughter, Kathryn Bowman Wright, and one son, Donald Rayburn Wright Jr.

Mrs. Grover C. Wright (Roxie Ashburn Wright).

Grover Cleveland Wright was employed for a short time at Mount Airy Furniture Co. After that, he was employed by National Furniture Company for over 35 years. He was foreman in the Veneer Department until he suffered a paralytic stroke in 1949. In 1954, while in the hospital for a check-up, he contracted pneumonia and, soon after that, a fatal heart attack. He is buried in Oakdale Cemetery, Mount Airy, N.C.

During the depression years, there was no such thing as "straight time" or unemployment compensation, so whenever there was a shortage of work, there was also a shortage of pay. Since there were seven children in our family, my mother took in "boarders" at home to help with various necessities and also to help "make ends meet." Most of the boarders worked with the different factories and mills;

but, occasionally, there would be a school teacher. This was a great help for the children who had lessons to be done. All in all, these different people who shared our home left their own special mark on our family; and, since there were several different barbers who lived at our home, they really left their mark — especially if one of the children had been naughty or would not sit still. Some haircut they would get!

Talk about getting bored or wondering what to do? Well, we never had that problem. We never lacked for things to do or for recreation of some sort. If there was not a ball game going on, we invented our own special games and played them over and over. One of our special games was "bunny hole" in which a course was laid out in our yard. Each person had their own special marble (some called them "taws" back then) and after you shot the marble into the first hole, you took the proper handspan and shot the marble into the next hole. The least number of strokes won the game. Another game was called "tin cans" and was played exactly like "bunny hole" except the holes were bigger and you used a stick and a small tin can. One year, during the depression years, Grover C. Wright, my father, was running short of money and the fair was coming to town; so, in order to not disappoint the children, he made a simplified form of the fair right in our own backyard, complete with merry-go-round, swings, seesaw, and even a four-seat ferris wheel. We children added our own games of throwing can rubbers onto nails driven into boards, bean bags made with real beans grown in our garden. These we threw through a clown's face painted onto a board with a hole sawed out for the mouth.

One of the highlights of our lives was the Christmas that Santa Claus left his bag up on the roof of our house. Each child had gotten some fruit and a small toy in their boxes that were set in front of the fireplace. (This was our custom instead of hanging stockings.) My grandmother, who lived next door, called to us and said there was a big bag up on top of our house. After our parents had taken us out of the house to see it, my father climbed up a ladder that just happened to be conveniently left against the side of the house and brought the bag down for us to see what was in it. Imagine our surprise when we saw that there was another gift for each of us in that bag. Mine was a small doll to go along with the pencil box I had already got from Santa Claus. Until this day, my brother says that he was in the Marines before he heard anyone question aloud as to whether or not there was a Santa Claus. In our family, you just believed (either way) and kept quiet, since there was always small children around.

The Wright family is originally from England, and the Wright family name is derived from the occupation of the earliest members of the family. In Old English, the word "Wright" meant a skilled workman, and one finds it linked with a number of products and occupations, such as "cheesewright," "glasswright," "cartwright," "wheelwright" and similar uses. Use of the word "wright" as a family name is found in Cambridge by 1273, and in Yorkshire by the middle 1300s. The Wright family of Surry and Stokes counties in North Carolina came from England to America by 1650, settling first in Virginia. One of the earliest Wrights in Virginia married Anne Washington, a great-aunt of George Washington, and the Wrights of Surry and Stokes counties are thus blood kin of Washington. The first courts of Surry County were held in the home of Gideon Wright before a county courthouse was built, and the family has often furnished public officials in the county since that time.

On the Wright coat of arms you will find a cross. This is thought to refer to service by early Wrights who fought in the Crusades — the wars which were fought to save the Holy Land from the Mohammedans. This statement is based on the fact that crosses were frequently used to show such backgrounds. The Wright coat of arms does not have a motto. This fact indicates that the Wright family coat of arms is a very old one.

Descendants of Mayberry "Mabe" and Esther "Hettie" (Kersey) York

My great-grandfather, Mayberry York, also known as Mabry and Mabe, was born ca 1815 in Randolph Co., N.C. He m. Esther "Hettie" Kersey (b. ca 1818) in Guilford Co., N.C. They resided near Jamestown, N.C., which is near High Point, from around 1834 until Mabe's death sometime between 1864 and 1870. Children of Mayberry and Esther York were: an unnamed son b. 1835; John Wesley b. 1836; Mary "Polly" Ann b. 1840; Elizabeth "Betsy" b. 1841; Susan b. 1844; Lydia Matitia, called Luitia and "Tish" b. 1846; Asenath/Cinetha b. 1848; Ellen or Ellena called "Nellie" b. 1851; William Franklin b. Aug. 5, 1853; Souarka "Sukie" b. 1860 and Mabry Albert b. 1862. All were born in Guilford Co., N.C.

"Mabe's" occupation was that of a gold miner, possibly mining for gold at either the McCulloch or Russell mines. Family tale is that there was a mine that Mabe worked at that played out and the owner of the mine gave the mine to Mabe. The whole family worked the mine and got out what gold they could. Mabe was hit by a train near Jamestown, N.C. and later died.

After the death of Mabe, it is told, Hettie, his widow, went to Carroll Co., Va. to live with a married daughter and took all of the children that were left at home with her with the exception of a son, William. William stayed and worked as a farmer and later went to Carroll Co., Va. to be near the rest of the family.

John Wesley m. Mary (). They had a son named Sanford b. 1861 in Guilford Co., N.C. John Wesley went to the Civil War but never returned. His widow and children later moved to Surry Co. Daughters, Mary "Polly" and Cinetha married into the Russell family and both moved with their husbands to Indiana. Polly m. John Russell and Cinetha m. Joseph D. Russell. "Sukie" had a tragic death as a child when her dress caught fire while she was playing near a fire in the yard. "Betsy", Susan, "Tish", and Mabry Albert were the children that went with their mother "Hettie" to Va. to the home of daughter "Nellie" and her husband, Isham Robert Childress.

Since Carroll Co., Va. is so close, some of the children moved over into Surry Co., N.C. Cassell York, son of William, lived in Surry Co. at one time with his family. Some of his descendants still reside in Surry Co. today. Sanford, the son of John Wesley and Mary () York probably has the largest number of descendants in Surry Co. today. Sanford m. Emily McHone, daughter of Newell and Polly Ann (DeHaven) McHone of Carroll Co. Va.

A family association for the York descendants of Mayberry "Mabe" and Esther "Hettie" (Kersey) York was formed in Aug. 1981.

where civilization had not penetrated, or returned to their native heath.

We shall find something of that distinctive New England character, which has contributed so many men and women to other portions of the West. We shall also find many an industrious native of Germany, as well as a number of the sons of the Emerald Isle, all of whom have contributed to modify types of men already existing here. Those who have noted the career of the descendants of these brave, strong men, in subduing the wilds and overcoming the obstacles and hardships of early times, can but admit they are worthy sons of illustrious sires. They who in the early dawn of Western civilization first "bearded the lion in his den," opened a path through the wilderness, drove out the wild beast and tamed the savage Indian, are entitled to one of the brightest pages in all the records of the past.

The old pioneers of Randolph county—the advance guard of Western civilization—have nearly all passed away; those remaining may be counted on the fingers of one hand. A few more years of waiting and watching, and they, too, will have joined—

"The innumerable caravan, that moves
To that mysterious realm, where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls of death."

Fresh hillocks in the cemetery will soon be all the marks that will be left of a race of giants who grappled nature in her fastnesses, and made a triumphant conquest in the face of the greatest privations, disease and difficulty. The shadows that fall upon their tombs as time recedes are like the smoky haze that enveloped the prairies in the early days, saddening the memory and giving to dim distance only a faint and phantom outline, to which the future will often look back and wonder at the great hearts that lie hidden under the peaceful canopy.

FIRST SETTLEMENTS MADE IN THE TIMBER.

The first settlements in the county were invariably made in the timber or contiguous thereto. The early settlers did so as a matter of necessity and convenience. The presence of timber aided materially in bringing about an early settlement, and it aided in two ways; first, the county had to depend on emigration from the older settled States of the East for its population, and especially Kentucky and Tennessee. These States originally were almost covered with dense forests, and farms were made by clearing off certain portions of the timber. Almost every farm there, after it became thoroughly improved, still retained a certain tract of timber commonly known as "the woods." "The woods" was generally regarded as the most important part of the farm, and the average farmer regarded it as indispensable. When he emigrated to the West, one objection was the scarcity of timber, and he did not suppose that it would be possible to open up a farm on the bleak prairie. To live in a region devoid of the familiar sight of timber seemed unendurable, and the average Kentuckian could not entertain the idea of founding a home away from the familiar forest trees. Then again the idea entertained by the early immigrants to Missouri, that timber was a necessity, was not simply theoretical. The early settler must have a house to live in, fuel for cooking and heating purposes, and fences to inclose his claim. At that time there were no railroads by which lumber could be transported. No coal mine had yet been opened, and few if any had been discovered. Timber was an absolute necessity, without which material improvement was an impossibility.

No wonder that a gentleman from the East, who in early times came to the prairie region of Missouri on a prospecting tour, with a view of permanent location, returned home in disgust and embodied his views of the country in the following rhyme:—

"Oh! lonesome, windy, grassy place,
Where buffalo and snakes prevail;
The first with dreadful looking face,
The last with dreadful sounding tail!
I'd rather live on camel hump,
And be a Yankee Doodle beggar,
Than where I never see a stump,
And shake to death with fever'n ager."

The most important resource in the development of this Western country was the belts of timber which skirted the streams; and the settlers who first hewed out homes in the timber, while at present not the most enterprising and progressive, were, nevertheless, an essential factor in the solution of the problem.

Along either side of the various streams which flow across the country, were originally belts of timber; at certain places, generally near the mouths of the smaller tributaries, the belt of timber widened out, thus forming a grove, or what was frequently called a point, and at these points or groves were the first settlements made; here were the first beginnings of civilization; here "began to operate those forces which have made the wilderness a fruitful place and caused the desert to bud and blossom as the rose."

Much of the primeval forest has been removed for the building of houses and the construction of fences; other portions, and probably
